

Work Exchange: Yoga Teaching, Housekeeping Support Roles and more, includes Accommodation

Have you always wanted to live in an intentional community?

Are you a new yoga teacher looking for experience? Can you support with housekeeping and daily operations at a busy yoga centre?

We're looking for someone like you!

Come and live and work at the Salt Spring Centre of Yoga - surrounded by fellow yogis/seekers. We are seeking residential volunteers beginning in early February and throughout the year.

This opportunity includes:

- Teaching experience for yoga teachers looking to increase their skills (200-hour teacher training required)
- Shifts working in one of our key service areas (Housekeeping, Guest Services)
- A room on our beautiful, forested Salt Spring property
- Access to yoga classes, ceremonies, and community events
- Inclusion in our supportive and welcoming community
- Nourishing lacto-vegetarian meals are included on the weekends we have in-house retreats (beginning in April)
- Access to onsite laundry, wifi, and reading room
- And more!

We are looking for a minimum commitment of 2 months for this opportunity.

For more information about the Centre, visit: <https://saltspringcentre.com/>

If you have any questions, feel free to contact us at info@saltspringcentre.com